SmartFee is now proud to support Accountants and Lawyers with their recruitment fees.

Accountants and Lawyers can now pay their recruitment fees over monthly instalments. We understand that recruitment fees can impact cashflow and that's why we're here to help. Best of all, there are no application or hidden fees.

How does it work?

The Recruitment company issues an invoice to the Accounting/Legal Practice for services rendered

SmartFee issues a quote to the Authorised Representative of the Accounting/Legal practice for acceptance

Once accepted, the Practice's fixed instalment plan will commence on the nominated start date

What are the repayment terms?

The minimum repayment term is 3 months and the maximum is 12 months.

How old can a recruitment invoice be?

A maximum of 3 months old from the date of issue. Invoices must have the recruitment company's necessary contact details and banking information clearly stated.

What happens if the recruitment doesn't work out?

The repayment arrangement between the Practice and SmartFee will continue as per the agreement.

SmartFee will not refund any instalments paid by the Practice or cancel the payment agreement should an issue arise between the recruitment company and the Practice.

The recruitment service, including the probationary period/warranty, is strictly between the Practice and the Recruitment Company. SmartFee simply funds the invoice.
